

CONTINUED FROM PAGE ONE

V. Grunwell, took place Wednesday evening, September 16, at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. George Warner, in Thirty-first street. The bridegroom's uncle, Rev. George E. Truett, officiated. The ceremony took place amid a graceful setting of palms, ferns and golden rods, with about sixty relatives and close personal friends in attendance. The bride was preceded only by her younger sister, Miss Helen T. Van Dusenburgh. Miss Mildred Fisher played the bridal music from Lohengrin. The bridegroom was attended by Dr. Gilbert Grunwell, U. S. N.

An informal reception and supper followed the ceremony, after which the bride and bridegroom left for a Northern tour. Mr. and Mrs. Grunwell will be at home to their friends at 135 Thirtieth street, northwest after October 15.

Mrs. Mann and son, Arthur, of New York, spent a few days in town during the week, the guests of friends.

Dr. George Pickrell, U. S. N. and Mrs. Pickrell are in Washington for a brief stay, and while here are guests at the Hotel Powhatan.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gibson, of Tonkars, N. Y., who formerly maintained a winter home in Washington, are here for a brief visit to friends and are guests at the Hotel Powhatan during their stay.

Mr. Charles Sprague, accompanied by his wife and son, and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Lindley, of Cincinnati, Ohio, are spending a few days in Washington and are guests at the Hotel Powhatan.

ALEXANDRIA.

Miss Pearl Virginia Rhodes, of Lexington, Va., and Prof. Foster McDonald Mitchell, of Raleigh, N. C., were married Tuesday afternoon at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. D. H. Kern, 429 North Washington street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. D. H. Kern, D. D., presiding elder of the Alexandria district of the M. E. Church South.

The couple will reside in Raleigh, N. C., where the bridegroom is employed as an assistant superintendent of the North Carolina Institute for the Blind. The bride is a daughter of the late Frank P. Rhodes, of Lexington, Va., and the bridegroom is a son of State Senator John F. Mitchell, of Youngsville, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Justus Schneider arrived home Friday afternoon after spending several months in Germany. Miss Caroline Emerson, of Rosemont, has gone to Ottawa, Canada, where she will join her sister, Miss Margaret, who has been the guest for the past month of her brother, Mr. Edward K. Emerson.

Mrs. George H. Le Hew and daughter, Miss Ruth, have returned from a visit to New York.

Mr. Frank Bettis, of Portsmouth, Va., is visiting his sister, Mrs. Frank Bettis, South Fairfax street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Davis, of 1208 Prince street, are visiting in St. Mary's County, Md.

Mr. George H. Schwarzmann has returned from a trip to Wilkes-Barre, Pa.

Mr. L. H. Dolan and Mr. W. W. Crockett have gone on a fishing trip to White House Landing, as guests of Mr. J. West.

Miss Annie Taylor and brother, Mr. Charles, are visiting Mrs. William Hunter Lee, Daville, Va.

Miss Mabel E. Alsop, of Fredericksburg, Va., and Mr. C. S. Cobb, of this city, were married Wednesday afternoon at the parsonage of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, by Rev. Dr. J. W. Duffey, pastor.

Rev. Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Wallis have returned from Atlantic City.

Miss Sarah E. Shotts is visiting relatives in Harrisonburg, Va., and Martinsburg, W. Va.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Marshall, of Harrisonburg, Pa., are visiting Mrs. Charles B. Marshall at "Good View," on the Potomac.

Mrs. John Henderson and daughter, Miss Loretta, are visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore.

Mr. James F. Pullman and Mr. Elmer Thompson have returned from Atlantic City and Philadelphia.

Mrs. Elizabeth Foster has gone to Philadelphia to visit her daughter, Mrs. Jacob Edge.

Miss Florence C. Rex, of Richmond, Va., is the guest of Miss Janet Rishell, South Washington street.

Mrs. H. A. Snow, of Philadelphia, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Samuel L. Monroe.

The ballroom of the Wagar Apartments was opened Tuesday night under the direction of Prof. Charles M. Wyndham, Jr., of Washington.

The Richmond Assembly gave its opening dance to a trip to Denver, Colo., and other points in the West.

Mr. J. H. Bartlett has returned after a visit to Pittsburgh, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Swan have returned from New York.

Miss Florence C. Purcell, formerly of this city, but now of New York, is visiting her old home in this city.

Dr. Charles Fielder, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. J. B. Wells in Prince street.

Miss Abbie Brown is the guest of her uncle, Mr. Wesley Davis, Baltimore.

Rev. and Mrs. Berrymann Green have returned to their home on Seminary Hill, after spending the summer at Nimrod, Va.

Mrs. Christina McArthur Kemper, of Rosemont, is the guest of Miss Emma Carter at her home in Charlottesville, Va.

Mrs. William J. Morton and children have returned after spending the summer in Rappahannock County, Va.

Mrs. Dorothy Taylor Ray, of Rosemont, is the guest of her father, Mr. Taylor, Norfolk, Va.

Miss Mittie Klipstein is the guest of Miss Morrison, Westport, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Houck, of New York, were week-end guests of Mr. Houck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Houck, Rosemont.

Mrs. Katherine Waller is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. William Waller, Baltimore.

Miss Virginia Fitzhugh Wheat, of Rosemont, is the guest of her uncle and aunt.

MISS MARY MORRIS M'CAULEY.

The marriage of Miss McCauley to Mr. Herbert S. Howard, U. S. N., will take place at St. John's Church, Lafayette square, Tuesday, November 3. This bride-to-be is the third and youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCauley, of 1719 Rhode Island avenue. Her sisters are Mrs. Walcott Tucker and Mrs. Charles O. Donnell Lee. Her only brother is Commander Edward McCauley, Jr., whose marriage to Miss Jean Oliver took place in St. John's Church two years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold West, at their home near Annapolis, Md.

Miss Louise Howell is visiting in Mobil, Ala.

Mrs. Overton Westfield Price and children, of Braddock Heights, Alexandria County, have moved to Rosemont.

Mrs. William Bryant and Miss Elizabeth Bryant are in Asheville, N. C., where they will spend several weeks.

Mayor Thomas A. Fisher has returned from New York.

Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, president of the National Council of Women, has returned from New York, and is now at Cape Henry, Va.

Mrs. Perry visited her brother, Dr. Gibbons, the past week.

Miss Gwynne, of Charles County, spent the past week with the Misses Gwynne in Prince George street.

Mrs. Nuby, of Warrenton, Va., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. William E. Gilbert.

Mr. and Mrs. De Wilton S. Berry, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their home in Philadelphia.

The Misses Redwood, of Ruxton, Md., who have been visiting Miss Eleanor Dailam, have returned home.

Miss Laura Dailam, who has been spending the summer in Belair, Md., has returned to her home here.

Mrs. Williams and Miss Frances Williams left Friday for Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Mrs. Lattimer, of Charles County, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Gwynne, in Prince George street.

Miss Fritz, of Baltimore, has returned to Laurel for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Whitford and daughter returned last week from their summer home in Waterloo, N. H.

Mrs. Williamson, with her grandchildren, Mary H. and Irvin Wright, is home after a summer spent at Rehoboth Beach.

Miss Irene Sanderson arrived on Wednesday from several weeks at Mrs. Humphrey's in Blumentown, Va.

Mrs. W. E. Richardson entertained at a birthday party Thursday from 3 to 5 in honor of her daughters, Helen and Virginia. The young ladies received their guests, who numbered twenty-four. Games were enjoyed after which refreshments were served.

Mr. Frank is entertaining his sister, Miss Frank, of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Ridgway and daughter, Agnes, returned on Tuesday from Cape Cod, where they spent the summer with the Boy Scouts on Chesapeake Bay, has joined his parents. Miss Roberts Ridgway will spend the winter on the Pacific Coast.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Frailey returned on Thursday from Nassau, N. J.

Miss Virginia Taylor, of Long Island, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. J. V. Chase.

Mrs. H. M. Southgate, who spent some time at Eaglesmont, Pa., returned to her home for a short stay and is now visiting Mr. Southgate's mother at Fough Neck, Mass.

Mrs. Mactier, after a week's visit to her home in Reading, Pa., has returned to her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lyon, of Worcester, Mass., who have been the guests of Mrs. Lyon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Gill, have left for their home.

Mrs. J. T. Frank and Mrs. J. T. Martin have returned from Eaglesmont and Atlantic City.

Mrs. Walter S. Abraham was hostess last Wednesday afternoon at bridge.

Paymaster C. J. Peoples, U. S. N., and Mrs. Peoples have taken possession of 377 Livingston street, Paymaster Peoples has just been ordered here for duty.

Dr. and Mrs. Charles Kester, who have of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Edward A. Fuller, Wins and Franklin avenues.

Mr. James A. McFarland has returned from an extended visit to friends in Birmingham and Mobile.

Miss Edna Gates, of Seat Pleasant, has been visiting Mrs. Mary Fowler at Locust Grove, near this place.

Mrs. S. F. Pottinger, Spencer street, has returned from a visit of several months to relatives in the South.

Mr. Kenneth F. Brooks has returned from a visit to friends at Holland Point, Calvert County.

Mrs. Joseph R. Owen, Franklin avenue, extended, has returned from a visit to her brother, Dr. William T. Councilman, near Cambridge, Mass.

Dr. and Mrs. Alfred H. Wells have returned from a pleasant visit to friends and relatives in Baltimore.

The Misses Carrie and Clara Turner, of Woodville, in the lower section of Prince Georges County, have been visiting their sister, Mrs. H. Welsh, upon the estate of her father, Mr. Welsh, Johnson and Wine avenues.

The Misses Catherine and Virginia Cummings, of Baltimore, are visiting friends in Littlefield avenue here.

Mrs. Samuel P. Hyatt, of Mitchellville, has returned after spending the summer with friends and relatives in New England.

ROCKVILLE.

Mayor and Mrs. Lee Offutt, Mrs. John Maddox, and Misses Elizabeth Maddox and Helen Brunett enjoyed an automobile trip to Leonardtown during the week.

The Rockville Inquiry Club was entertained by Mrs. Henry L. Wells at its bi-weekly meeting Monday afternoon. Mrs. Otto H. W. Talbot, school teacher, and the program included other interesting features. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. Ralph Kimball, of Washington, spent the week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John M. Heat, here.

Mr. T. Richard Falvey, of New Orleans, arrived in Rockville Wednesday to spend some time at the home of his father-in-law, Col. Spencer C. Jones, where Mrs. Falvey has been spending the summer.

Mrs. Ellen Armstrong has returned to Rockville after spending several weeks visiting relatives in St. Paul, Minn.

Mr. and Mrs. William R. Pumphrey and daughters, Misses Amy and Mary Pumphrey, have returned to their home here after spending two weeks at Atlantic City.

A literary entertainment, under the auspices of the Epworth League of Grace Methodist Church, Gaithersburg, was held last evening. The program was well attended and was largely attended. It was in charge of a committee of which Miss Ethel Waters was chairman. The program included a recitation by Frank Severance, vocal music by Miss Octavia Green, instrumental music by Miss Marjorie Waters and Clyde Thomas; reading by Miss Anna Mary McCullough, and an address by Rev. Henry F. Hamlin.

Dr. and Mrs. L. Seiver, of Cambridge, Md., were recent guests of Prof. and Mrs. William W. Skinner at Kensington.

Mrs. Welles Merriam and little son returned to their home at Kensington a few days ago, after spending several weeks in Oakley, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Ramey and children returned to their home here a few days ago, after spending several weeks visiting relatives in Western Pennsylvania.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.

Mrs. and Mrs. Charles D. Morgan have returned to their home here after spending two weeks visiting relatives in Virginia.

Mr. H. Worthington Talbot, of New Orleans, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Hatterly W. Talbot, here.

Mrs. William T. Brown and children have returned to their home at Kensington, Md., after spending some time visiting relatives in Rockville.

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Henderson have returned from their honeymoon trip and have taken up their residence in Germantown, where Mr. Henderson recently built a handsome home.

Mrs. Jane Bradley and son, Julian W. Bradley, have returned from Atlantic City, where they spent ten days.

Messrs. Lewis and Edgar Reed returned to Rockville during the week from a motorcycle trip to Boston.